Anne Frank Walking Tour

Amsterdam is known for its liberal and tolerant spirit, but during World War II, the city faced one of its darkest periods. This 2-hour guided tour takes you through the Jewish Quarter, retracing the tragic events of the German occupation (1940-1945) through the eyes of Anne Frank.

Led by an expert guide from 360 Amsterdam, you'll visit key historical sites such as the Portuguese Synagogue, Hollandsche Schouwburg Museum and the former Jewish Council office. Learn about the Dutch resistance, the hiding places that sheltered Jewish families as well as pivotal events like the February 1941 Strike and the Hunger Winter of 1944-1945.
